Sermon for the ___th Sunday /Nov

The talents

Jesus' firm anchorage in the world of human necessity, an aspect of incarnation, opposite to the tendency to covert his spirituality into an otherworldly presence.

The risk

A talent unused is a talent lost. The useful life as an ingredient of the spiritual life.

Dostoevsky "What men and women want is something to live for."

The risk and adventure of living.

Wealth vs. the rich life. People don't want 3/8 inch drills. They want 3/8 inch holes!
